

INDEX

- Abdullah (Emir), 42
 Acheson, Dean, 6
 ALBRECHT-CARRIÉ, RENÉ, The Italian Treaty, 76-86
 Allied occupation policies diverse administration, 5
   in Austria, 64-65, 110-111
   in Germany, 61-64
     objectives of policy
       deindustrialization, 120
       democratization, 121
       denazification, 61, 63, 120-121
     zonal divisions, 119
   in Italy, 57-59
     Russia excluded from, 58-59
   in Japan, 66-69
   in Korea, 69-70
   See also Peace settlements—prospective, with Germany
 Allied property: restitution of, required of Nazi satellite states, 101
 Allied unity
   disintegration of, at end of war, 19
   during World War II, 19, 72
     breaks in, 73
   not maintained by control commissions, 71
 Arab League
   formation of, 41
   opposition of, to partition of Palestine, 41, 45
 Aristotle, 72
 Asia, increasing world importance of, 56
 Asquith, Herbert H., 190
 Atomic energy
   destructive threat of, 10, 11
 Attlee, Clement R., 39, 151, 197
 Aung San, 33
 Auriol, Vincent, 151
 Austria
   agreement with Italy re the South Tirol, 80-81 Allied occupation of, 64-65, 110-111
     zonal divisions, 111
   as pawn in power politics, 65, 106-107, 112
   historical extinction of, by the Nazis, 109 independence of
     and economic capacity, 114-115
     prerequisites of, 113
     promised by Allies, 110
     threatened by Soviet claim to German assets in, 65
   legal nonexistence of, 108-109, 110
   must be re-created by international treaty, 109
   prospective international treaty on as to Austrian obligations, 116-117
     as to boundary settlements, 115-116
     as to minority rights, 117-118
     survival strength of, 111-112
 AUSTRIAN, PEACE, THE, Kurt von Schuschnigg, 106-118
 Badoglio, Pietro, 78
 Baer, T. S., 129
 Baldwin, Hanson, cited, 187
 Balfour, Arthur J., 4
 Balkans, see Nazi satellite states
 Berge, Wendell, cited, 172
 Bevin, Ernest, 6, 151
 Bidault, Georges, 7, 103
 Biddle, Francis, 187
 Bierut, Boleslaw, 9
 Blatnik, John A., cited, 172
 Bolleart, Emile, 33
 BORCHARD, EDWIN, Present Status of International Law, 184-190
 Borton, Hugh, cited, 68
 Bradshaw, Mary E., cited, 58
 Briand, Aristide, 4, 151, 156
 Brockdorff-Rantzau, Ulrich von, 4
 Brown, Lewis H., cited, 140, 196
 Buchanan, Norman S., cited, 173, 174
 BULGARIAN, RUMANIAN, AND HUNGARIAN PEACE TREATIES, THE, Joseph S. Roucek, 97-105
 Byrnes, James F., 63, 64, 73, 98, 121, 186 cited, 2, 59, 60, 61, 65, 67, 69, 91, 194, 196, 197, 198
   quoted, 125
 Campbell, John C., cited, 59, 66, 69
   quoted, 51
 Capehart, Homer E., quoted, 168
 Carr, E. H., cited, 60
 Cartels
   measures favoring, sought by U. S. groups, 170, 171-172 policies re power of, in Germany, 139-141, 171-172
   prewar world industrial control by, 161
 Cassidy, Velma Hastings, cited, 64
 Central-eastern Europe and the Balkans, see Nazi satellite states
 Chiang Kai-shek, 23, 24, 30, 31, 66
 China
   a battleground between Russia and the West, 30, 145
   power-political activity in, 30-31
   relations of, with Russia, 24, 30-31
   U. S. policy toward, 30-31
   weakness of, tempting Japan, 145
 Churchill, Winston, 2, 23, 24, 42, 55, 61, 66, 72, 80, 151, 196, 197
 Ciano, Galeazzo, 77
 Clark, Mark W., 106; cited, 65; quoted, 110

- Clemenceau, Georges, 196
 Cold war, see Power politics Collective security
   disregard of, between the world wars, 3
   by the U. S., 191
   principle of, basic in international law, 191-192
 Comenius, John Amos, 151
 Communism
   aiding Soviet diplomacy, 21
   and the ERP, 169-170
   expected subsidence of, affected U. S. foreign policy, 50
   failure of, in Austria, 65
   in China, 30-31
   in China and Japan, as aid to Russia, 146 spread of, 1, 3, 7, 8-10, 60, 89, 95-96, 151-152, 153
   strength of idea of, 152
   threat of
     to Italian freedom, 85-86
     to United States, 52, 156
     to Western world, 152
 Conflict between East and West
   and European fear of the U. S., 172-173 Austria a pawn in, 65
   centralized in U. S. and U.S.S.R., 7-10, 11, 47, 49
   European federation means of arresting, 153, 156
   impeding the United Nations, 183
   in China, 145
   in peace settlements with Nazi satellites, 97-99, 103, 105
   manifest in European Recovery Program, 7
   manifest in peace conferences, 5
   no historical precedent for, 54-55
   over German assets in Austria, 106, 116
   re Italian-Yugoslav boundary, 80, 81-82, 176-178
   re occupation of Austria, 64-65
   re peace with Germany, 63-64
   re peace with Japan, 26-27, 67-68
   re provisional government in Korea, 28-29, 69-70
   Soviet policy, 21
   United States policy, 20-22
   United States supremacy necessary to end, 75
   wartime factors in, 19-20
 Conflict between free enterprise and the social state, 11, 169-171
 Cripps, Stafford, 34

 Dallin, David J., cited, 199
 Deane, John Russell, 73
 de Gaulle, Charles, 43, 195
 Democracies, necessity of, in atomic age, 192-193
 Dependent peoples
   as affected by Japanese occupation, 31
   becoming independent, 11, 32-36, 42-46
   free peoples becoming, 198, 199
 Dimitrov, Georgi, 8
 Dinkelbach, Heinrich, 172
 Disillusionment
   after World War I in Italy, 76
   following World War II, 2, 4, 10, 74
   in Austria, 108
 Dulles, John Foster, 136

 England, see Great Britain
 Ercoli, Ercole (Palmiro Togliatti), 8
 Ethnic features of boundary disputes
   in Carinthia, 115-116
   in Venezia Giulia and Trieste, 81 Europe
   as former center of world civilization, 13-14
   attempts at salvation of
     by Russia, 168-169
     by the U. S., 6, 20-22, 165-168
   international, 18-19, 55-56, 162-165
   decline of, centered in British decline, 47
   dependent on Germany, 55, 160-161
   destroyed by World War II
     in industrial output, 159-160
     in international trade, 160-161
     in world influence, 13-14, 19
     morally and socially, 17-18
     physically, 14-15
   factors preventing recovery of, 169-175
   fear of the U. S. prevalent in, 172-173 freedom of, dependent on a free Austria, 113
   inflation in, 157
   survival of cartel system in, 161
   See also Federation of nations European Recovery Program
   American reports in connection with, 167-168, 174
   as weapon against Communism, 85, 153
   invalidity of, 169-170
   birth of, 6-7, 21
   concerned with depletion of German transport system, 139
   conditions sought to be imposed upon, 170
   dangers of, 151, 152
   fears concerning, 171-172
   Germany and, 136-137, 171-172 opposition in U. S. to, 169-170 political union of Europe essential to, 153, 174
   Russian opposition to, 7, 9
 Evatt, Herbert V., 98

 Far East
   chaos in, 11
   entanglement of United States in, 142, 146-147
 Farley, James A., cited, 195
 Federation of nations
   Arab League, formation of, 41

European

- alternatives to, 156
- compared with U. S. struggles for unity, 155-156
- economic, 55-56, 134
- necessary to defense against Russia, 152-153, 156
- necessary to European stability, 11, 107
- necessary to success of European Recovery Program, 152-153
- obstacles to, 154-155
- recurrence of idea of, 151
- requirements of economic union in, 174
- Russian opposition to, 154
- United States stake in, 153-154, 156
- trend toward, 10-11

FENWICK, CHARLES G., What Has Become of International Law? 191-193

Finland

- prospects of, to become U.N. member, 180-181
- Russian aggression upon (1939-44), 87-90
  - results of, economic and political, 93-96
- See also* Peace settlements—with Finland

FINNISH TREATY, THE, John H. Wuorinen, 87-96

FLAMING EAST, THE, Amry Vandenbosch, 23-36

Foreign policy

- of France toward Syria and the Lebanon, 42-43
- of Great Britain toward Germany: clash with U. S. on deconcentration policy, 139-140, 141
- of Russia toward China, 31
- of the United States, 20-21
  - accepts responsibilities of international law, 191
  - and extent of aid to foreign countries, 165
  - and removal of trade barriers, 173-174
  - assumptions underlying, 50-51
    - reversal of, 51-52
  - concessions to Russia, 50, 51, 74
  - corruption of, feared, 171-172
  - in the Far East, 146
  - toward China, 30-31
  - toward Germany, 120, 126-127
    - clash with England on deconcentration policy, 139-140, 141
    - shift of, re economic development, 129-131
  - toward Greece, 38
  - toward Japan, 66-67, 68-69, 150
  - toward Palestine, 45-46
  - toward Saudi Arabia, 41-42
  - toward Turkey, 38-40
  - uprooting of traditions of, 189-190
- See also* European Recovery Program; Great Britain; Peace settlements—prospective, with Germany; Russia

Fox, W. T. R., 73

France

- opposition of, to German economic unity, 63
- power-political activities of, after 1918, 3
- See also* Foreign policy

Franco, Francisco, 10

Free enterprise

- challenged, 11
- movement for restoration of, 161, 170

FRIEDRICH, CARL J., The Peace Settlement with Germany—Economic and Social, 129-141

—, The Peace Settlement with Germany—Political and Military, 119-128

Friedrich, Carl J., cited, 125

FULBRIGHT, J. WILLIAM, A United States of Europe? 151-156

Galbraith, J. K., cited, 169

Gandhi (Mahatma), 35

Gasperi, Alcide de, 78, 81

Genêt, E. C. E., 184

Germany

- assets of, in Austria, 65
- courting of, by U. S. and Russia, 21
- dependence on, of Europe, 160-161
- economic unity of
  - as Anglo-American aim, 120
  - opposed by France, 63
- excess capacity of wartime economy of, 131
- fears concerning rebuilding of, 171-172
- fertilizer industry, necessary for recovery of, 132-133
- great-power status of, ended, 13, 19
- potential of, crux of revived Europe, 55
- present deficient economy of, 131-132
  - population transfers, as worsening, 132
- resurgence of, as obstacle to European federation, 154
- See also* Allied occupation policies—in Germany; European Recovery Program; Federation of nations; Peace settlements—prospective, with Germany; Rearmament restrictions; Reparations

Gottwald, Klement, 8

Great Britain

- activities of, concerning Palestine, 44-45
- contemplated withdrawal of, from Egypt, 44
- difficulties of, in Iran, 40-41
- independence granted to Trans-Jordan by, 42
- occupation of Syria and the Lebanon by, 42-43
- position of
  - re peace conference on Japan, 26
  - re The Straits, 39-40
  - re the Sudan, 44
- power decline of
  - and American foreign policy upset, 50-51
  - as core of European decline, 47

- factors in, 47-48
 not caused by World War II, 48
 stand of, concerning Saudi Arabian oil, 41-42
 troops of, withdrawn from Iraq, 41
 U. S. position on Korea seconded by, 29 withdrawal of, from India, 34-35
- GREAT POWERS IN THE NEW WORLD ORDER,
 THE, Robert Strausz-Hupé, 47-56
- Grotius, Hugo, 151
- Groza, Petru, 60, 104
- Gruber, Karl, 81; cited, 65
- GURIAN, WALDEMAR, Peace Ideals and Reality, 72-75
- Gyorgy, Andrew, quoted, 60
- Hadsel, Winifred N., cited, 97
- Haw-Haw (Lord), see Joyce, William
- Hazlitt, Henry, quoted, 169
- Henry IV of France, 151
- Herriot, Édouard, 151
- Hindenburg, Paul von, 124
- Hirohito, 3, 4, 74
- Hitler, Adolf, 3, 4, 55, 72, 74, 90, 91, 99, 102, 103, 106, 107, 109, 111, 112, 116, 120, 124, 139, 155, 161, 170, 172
- Hodge, John R., 27
- Holborn, Hajo, cited, 57, 58, 64, 66
- Hoover, Herbert, quoted, 137
- Huerta, Victoriano, 189
- Hugenberg, Alfred, 124, 172
- Hughes, Charles Evans, 187
- Hula, Erich, cited, 64
- Hull, Cordell, 189; cited, 194
- Hurley, Patrick J., 30
- Hutchins, Robert M., 11
- Ibn Saud, 41
- Ickes, Harold L., 42
- Idealism
 following World War I, 2, 194-195, 197, 200, 201
 in U. S. during World War II, 72-73
- Ideologies, conflicting
 as obstacle to European federation, 155
 in regard to World War II, 73-74
- India and Pakistan
 bitterness and violence in, 35-36
 withdrawal from, by Britain, 34-35
- Inflation, world-wide, 157-158
- INTERIM GOVERNMENTS AND OCCUPATION REGIMES, Roger H. Wells, 57-71
- International agencies for postwar reconstruction, 18-19, 162-165
- International law
 abandonment of principles of, by U.N., 184 Nuremberg trials, as destructive of, 187-188
 recent inroads upon, 184-187, 188-189, 200-201
 shortcomings of, before World War II, 191, 193
 strengthening of, by U.N., and challenge to, 191-193
- ITALIAN TREATY, THE, René Albrecht-Carrié, 76-86
- Italy
 Fascism in, leading to aggression, 76-77
 incompetence of, as a warring nation, 77-78
 postwar difficulties in economic and political problems, 78-79, 84-85
   threat of Communism, 85-86
 prospects of, to become U.N. member, 180-181
 skillful diplomacy of, 76
See also Allied occupation policies—in Italy;
 Peace settlements—with Italy
- Jabur, Salih, 42
- Jackson, Robert H., 187, 188
- Japan
 a weak China threatened by, 145
 conflicting desires of other powers toward, 27
 development of, during past century, 142-143
 effect of defeat upon, 143
 historical continuity of persistence of the empire, 144-145
   persistence of the military tradition, 144-145
 occupation of Japan
   early end to, advocated, 150
   relative success of, 25-26, 68-69, 144, 145
   structure of, 24-25, 66-68
 prospective peace conference
   procedural disagreement over, 26
   terms of, see Peace settlements—prospective, with Japan surrender terms for, 24
 threat of revival of, 147
   dependent on world conditions, 150
 U. S. immigration reforms regarding, advocated, 150
- Jefferson, Thomas, 129
- Jinnah, M. A., 35
- Joyce, William ("Lord Haw-Haw"), 110
- Kaila, T. T., cited, 90
- KALIJARVI, THORSTEN V., The Persistence of Power Politics, 1-12
- , Settlements of World Wars I and II Compared, 194-202
- Kant, Immanuel, 151
- Kavtaradze, Sergei I., 104
- Knauth, Arnold W., cited, 185
- Kolarov, Vasil, 8, 104

Korea

- bizonal occupation of, 27-28, 69
- unsuccessful efforts to unite, 28-29, 69-70

KREPS, THEODORE J., Toward a World Economy, 157-174

Krug, J. A., cited, 168

Kuusinen, Otto, 8

Langer, William, cited, 195

Lansing, Robert, 188

LATOURETTE, KENNETH SCOTT, Peace with Japan, 142-150

Lauterbach, Richard E., cited, 66, 68, 70

Law, see International law

League of Nations

- comparison of, with U.N., 197, 201
- destroyed by power politics, 2, 3
- linked with the peace settlements, 175, 201

Lehtonen, Oskari, 8

LENGYEL, EMIL, The Wreck of Europe, 13-22

Lenin, Nikolay, 54

Lepsius, Johannes, editor, 194

Lie, Trygve, 175

Lippmann, Walter, 56

Lloyd George, David, 4, 196

Loewenstein, Karl, cited, 186

Louis XIV of France, 155

Lutz, Friedrich A., cited, 173, 174

MacArthur, Douglas, 25, 26, 66, 67, 68, 74

McBreen, Maureen, 157

McCune, George M., cited, 70

McKinley, William, 159

Maki, John M., cited, 68

Mallery, Otto T., cited, 159, 174

Maniu, Iulius, 60

Manuilskiy, Dmitry Z., 8, 29

Marshall, George C., 6, 13, 21, 28, 30, 69, 70, 151, 165, 168, 197

quoted, 130

Marshall plan, see European Recovery Program

Marty, André, 8

Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, Albrecht, editor, 194

Michael I of Rumania, 60

Middle East, see Near and Middle East

Migration

- desired by Europeans after World War II, 16-17

of Finns from Russian-captured areas, 88, 94

See also Population transfers

Military restrictions, see Rearmament restrictions

Minorities, see Population transfers

Minority rights

- of Jews in Rumania, 100
- of the Hungarians in Czechoslovakia, 102
- of the Magyars, 102
- regulation of, in prospective Austrian treaty, 117-118

See also Dependent peoples

Molotov, V. M., 7, 28, 31, 49, 59, 67, 69, 89, 98, 104, 105; quoted, 121-122

Moore, John Bassett, 188

Mountbatten, Louis, 35

Mussolini, Benito, 3, 4, 72, 77, 78

quoted, 76

Nahas Pasha, Mustapha El, 41, 44

Napoleon I, 155

Nationalism

as an essential of fascism in Europe, 76

rise of, consequent to ERP, 151

Nazi satellite states

consolidation of Russian position in, 8-9, 60-61, 104-105

prospects of, to become U.N. members, 180-181

U. S. and English aims for, thwarted, 59-61, 103

See also Minority rights; Peace settlements

—with Nazi satellite states; Rearmament restrictions; Reparations

Near and Middle East

chaos in Near East, 11

inflation in, 157

postwar status of various countries

Egypt, 43

Greece, 37-38

Iran, 40-41

Iraq, 42

Palestine, 44-46

Saudi Arabia, 41-42

Syria and Lebanon, 42

Trans-Jordan, 42

Turkey, 38-40

Nehru, Jawaharlal, 35, 36

Neutrality

as outmoded concept, 191

impossibility of, for Austria, 112-113

wisdom of, discarded, 185, 187, 188

Nicolaevsky, Doris I., cited, 199

Nicolson, Harold George, cited, 98, 99, 196, 199

Nimitz, Chester W., 185

Nobleman, Eli E., cited, 62

Nuremberg trials, see International law

Nuri Pasha es-Said, 41

Occupation policies, see Allied occupation policies

Oil

as source of British-Russian dispute in Iran, 40-41

attempted control of, in Saudi Arabia, 41-42

Orlando, Vittorio E., 196

Pakistan, see India

Palestine

Arab opposition to partition of, 41, 45

postwar status of, 44-46

Pauker, Anna, 8

PEACE IDEALS AND REALITY, Waldemar Gurian, 72-75

PEACE SETTLEMENT WITH GERMANY—ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL, THE, Carl J. Friedrich, 129-141

PEACE SETTLEMENT WITH GERMANY—POLITICAL AND MILITARY, THE, Carl J. Friedrich, 119-128

Peace settlements

comparison of settlements of World Wars I and II

as to documentation, 194

as to early settlement of boundaries, 198-199

as to immunity of property, 200-201

as to liberation and self-determination of peoples, 198, 199

as to reparations, 200

as to spirit of peacemaking, 194-197, 202

as to structure and leadership, 196-197

as to treaty negotiations, 197-198, 201-202

the League of Nations vs. U.N., 201

improbability of revision of, 183

not linked with U.N. organization, 175-176

possible exception, re Italian colonies, 179

possible methods of revision of, 181-182

prospective

with Austria, 106, 115-118

with Germany

agreement as to structure of German state, basic in, 125-126

American conceptions of, 126-127

Allied disagreement concerning, 119-120

collectivization of eastern Germany, as obstacle to, 129

determination of boundaries, fundamental in, 121-123

legal nonexistence of Germany, as obstacle to, 119

possibility of excluding Russia from, 128

Potsdam policies basic in settlements

Allied split re deconcentration policy, 139-141

considerations as to denazification, 124-125

development of demilitarization, 123-124

intensification of democratization, 121

modification of deindustrialization plans, 120

problem of continuing Allied occupation, to be decided by, 127-128

reconstruction of transportation, element in, 138-139 shift of U. S. policy re economic development reflected in, 129-131

trade program proposed for, 135-136, 141

currency reform essential to, 137

shipping problems affecting, 137-138

with Japan

economic stability, essential provision of, 149

inadvisability of reparations in, 147

military and territorial considerations of, 147-149

with Finland

armistice and preliminary peace (1944), 90-91

economic and political burdens on Finland, 94-96

terms imposed by Russia (1940), 88

treaty of Paris (1947), 91-93

with Italy

appraisal of, 83-84

arduous preliminaries to, 79

disposition of Italian colonies, 83, 179-180

frontier considerations in

re the South Tirol, 80

re Trieste, 81-82, 176-178

re Venezia Giulia, 81

provision of, envisaging modification, 182

U.N. action, in case of violation of, 178-179

with Nazi satellite states

aim of, to establish democratic governments, 59-60

attempted revision of, by signatories, 102-103, 104, 181-183

based on concessions to Soviet Russia, 4-5

final agreements of, 99-102

preliminary negotiations to, 97-99

prospects of, 103, 105

ratification of, by Russia, 97, 104

subject to power politics, 2, 97-99, 103, 105

See also European Recovery Program; Federation of nations; Minority rights; Re-armament restrictions; Reparations

PEACE WITH JAPAN, Kenneth Scott Latourette, 142-150

Penn, William, 151

Perry, Matthew C., 143, 144

PERSISTENCE OF POWER POLITICS, THE, Thorsten V. Kalijarvi, 1-12

Petkov, Nikola, 6

Philippines, the, postwar status of, 32

Poensgen, Ernst, 172

Pollack, J. K., editor, 60, 64

Pollak, Otto, 106

Population transfers

from Baltic States, 8

occasioned by World War II, 15-16

of Germans from eastern Germany, 121-122, 132

of Poles into eastern Germany, 122

- Postwar demoralization, 1-2
 as result of conflicting war ideologies, 73-74
 should not cause overpessimism, 12
- Power politics
 agents of, 3-4
 and the fate of European states, 153
 Austria as pawn of, 106-107, 112
 between World Wars I and II, 3-4 changing nature of political power, 10
 in the U. S.-Russian conflict, 52-53 dominant in determining Italian-Yugoslav boundary, 80, 81-82
 dominate peace settlements with Nazi satellites, 2
 in Asia, 23-24
 in China, 30
 regulate criteria for U.N. membership, 180-181, 183
 world-wide illustrations of, 5-6
See also Conflict between East and West
- PRESENT STATUS OF INTERNATIONAL LAW, Edwin Borchard, 184-190
- Procopé, Hjalmar J., cited, 90
- Property: infractions as to, after World War II, 185-186, 200-201
- Public opinion
 a factor in power politics, 10
 concern with, in postwar era, 75
 in the United States
 directed against Soviet Russia, 74-75
 during World War II, 72, 73-74
- Quezon, Manuel L., 32
- Radescu, Nicolae, 60
- Rákosi, Matyas, 9
- Rearmament restrictions
 in the prospective treaty with Austria, 117
 not likely to prevent Japanese rearmament, 145, 149, 150
 on Finnish forces, 93
 on Nazi satellite states, 101
 proposed lessening of, in Germany, 124, 127
 removal of urged, re German fleet and merchant marine, 137-138
- Reparations
 demanded by Russia of Austria, 106, 116, 200
 disastrous effect of, upon Finland, 93-95
 exacted against the Nazi satellites, 101-102, 200 inadvisability of, re Japan, 147
 paid by Germany after the world wars, 199-200
 Soviet demands as to German assets in Austria, 65
- Reveille, Thomas, cited, 172
- Ribbentrop, Joachim von, 77
- Roberts, Owen J., 189
- Roosevelt, Franklin D., 23, 41, 50, 52, 61, 66, 72, 73, 189, 195, 196, 197
- Rosinger, Lawrence K., cited, 66
- Rostow, W. W., cited, 51
- ROUCEK, JOSEPH S., The Bulgarian, Rumanian, and Hungarian Peace Treaties, 97-105
- Roxas, Manuel, 32
- Royall, Kenneth C., quoted, 171
- Russia
 activities of, in Azerbaijan, 40-41
 Allied concessions to, 50-52
 attitude of
 re proposed peace conference on Japan, 26-27
 re prospective U.N. members, 180-181
 claims of, in the Far East, 23-24, 27
 collectivization policies of, in eastern Germany, 129, 130
 declaration of, re Italian colonies, 180
 demands of, regarding The Straits, 39-40
 excluded from occupation of Italy, 58-59
 expansionism of, 5, 8-10, 21, 52, 54, 74, 103, 104-105, 106, 112, 151-152, 153
 foothold of, in the East, 146, 148
 independence of Syria and the Lebanon recognized by, 43
 intransigence of, in Korea, 28-29, 69-70
 long-view objectives of, 53-54
 Nazi satellite reparations to be paid to, 101
 no match for the U. S., 50 opposition to European federation by, 154
 policy of, re Italian-Yugoslav frontier, 80, 81-82, 177-178
 position of, in Austria, 64-65
 possibility of separate peace with Germany
 by, 128
 ratification by, of Nazi satellite peace treaties, 97, 104
 relations of, with Finland, 87-90, 92, 93, 95-96
 shift of power to, 14, 19, 20, 47
 strategic advantages of, over U. S., 52-53 struggle with, over German assets in Austria, 65, 106, 112
 treaty with China, to terminate Pacific war, 24, 30-31
 unilateral action of, in Rumania, Hungary,
 and Bulgaria, 60-61
 U. S. public opinion directed against, 74-75
See also Communism
- Sadowski, George G., quoted, 172
- Sansom, George, cited, 27
- Sasuly, Richard, cited, 172
- Schmid, Karl, cited, 128
- Schroeder, Kurt von, 172
- SCHUSCHNIGG, KURT VON, The Austrian Peace, 106-118
- SETTLEMENTS OF WORLD WARS I AND II COM-PARED, Thorsten V. Kalijarvi, 194-202

- Shtikov, Terentyi F., 29
- Southeastern Asia
 as affected by Japanese occupation, 31
 postwar status of various countries
   Burma, 32-33
   Ceylon, 33
   India, 34-36
   Indo-China, 33
   Indonesia, 34
   Malaya, 33
   Philippines, 32
- Spykman, Nicholas John, 73
- STAKES IN THE NEAR AND MIDDLE EAST, Wilbur W. White, 37-46
- Stalin, Joseph, 3, 4, 8, 9, 23, 24, 39, 50, 61, 73, 92, 104, 196
- Stilwell, Joseph W., 30
- Stocking, George W., cited, 172
- Stone, Isaac A., cited, 60
- STRAUSZ-HUPÉ, ROBERT, The Great Powers in the New World Order, 47-56
- Sulzberger, C. L., cited, 103
- Sun Fo, 31
- Suviranta, Br., cited, 94
- Tanner, Väinö A., 89
- Temperley, Harold William Vazielle, editor, 194, 195, 196
- Thimme, Friedrich, editor, 194
- Thomas, Norman, cited, 195
- Thorez, Maurice, 8
- Tito, Marshal (Jossip Broz), 9, 80
- Tomkins, E. F., cited, 170
- Totalitarianism
 aim of Soviet action in the Balkans, 60
 and Communist solidarity, 8-10
 dangers of, in atomic age, 192-193
 U. S. policy, aimed against, 20-22
- TOWARD A WORLD ECONOMY, Theodore J. Kreps, 157-174
- Truman, Harry S., 8, 24, 30, 38, 39, 44, 45, 66, 104, 184, 196, 197
 quoted, 20, 21-22
- Truman doctrine, statement of, 20, 38
- Trusteeship agreement
 giving U. S. administration of some Pacific islands, 27
 should be under U.N. supervision, 149
- U Saw, 33
- Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, see Russia
- United Nations
 administration of Trieste assumed by, 176-178
 agencies of, to facilitate economic co-operation, 162-165
 Balkan Committee of, to settle Greek-Balkan dispute, 38
 by-passed by the Truman doctrine, 38
- Charter of, strengthening international law, 191-192
 compared with the League of Nations, 201
 course of, in case of aggression against Italy, 178-179
 current inability of, to use armed force, 178, 183
 deadlock in, on Palestine question, 45-46
 dissatisfaction with provisions of, 74
 not linked with peace settlements, 175-176
   possible exception, re Italian colonies, 179
 possibilities of treaty revision through, 181-183
 pressure of, in Iranian crisis, 40-41
 principles of, conflicting with international law, 184 prospect of membership in, of Nazi satellite states, 180-181
 recommendations of, re troops in Syria and the Lebanon, 43
 role of, in saving Europe, 18-19, 162-165
 suggested as trustee of some Pacific islands, 148-149
 U. S. policies seconded by, 20
 uselessness of, in event of Communist-dominated Europe, 153
- UNITED NATIONS AND THE PEACE TREATIES, THE, Francis O. Wilcox, 175-183
- United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration
 in Austria, 64
 weaknesses and termination of, 6
- United States
 disadvantage of, compared with Russia, 52-53
   See also Foreign policy
- UNITED STATES OF EUROPE, A? J. William Fulbright, 151-156
- Vandenberg, Arthur H., 7, 38
 quoted, 167, 178-179
- VANDENBOSCH, AMRY, The Flaming East, 23-36
- Vernon, Raymond, cited, 161
- Viviani, René, 4
- Voorhis, Jerry, cited, 172
- Vyshinsky, Andrey J., 60
- Wallace, Henry A., 171
- Warburg, James P., quoted, 61, 172-173
- Washburn, John N., cited, 70
- Washington, George, 151
- Watkins, Myron W., cited, 172
- Wavell, A. P., 35
- Weapons of war
 changing character of, 10, 52, 53
 and law of war, 185
   necessitating democratic institutions, 192-193
 control of, by international law, 192

Wedemeyer, Albert C., 31
 Welles, Sumner, cited, 50
 WELLS, ROGER H., Interim Governments and Occupation Regimes, 57-71
 Western Hemisphere, defense system of, 8
 WHAT HAS BECOME OF INTERNATIONAL LAW?
   Charles G. Fenwick, 191-193
 WHITE, WILBUR W., Stakes in the Near and Middle East, 37-46
 Whyte, Anne, cited, 62
 WILCOX, FRANCIS O., The United Nations and the Peace Treaties, 175-183
 William II of Germany, 155
 Wilson, Woodrow, 2, 175, 188, 189, 196, 197, 201
 World War I
   disillusionment following, in Italy, 76
   fear of repeating errors of, 72-73
   idealism following, 2, 194-195, 197, 200, 201
   See also Peace settlements

World War II
   American ideology in regard to, 72, 73-74
   as war of survival, not sufficiently stressed, 75 Asiatic aims of, 23-24
   casualties of, 1, 14, 49-50, 94, 158-159
   demoralizing effects of, 1, 2, 4, 10, 74, 157-158
     in Austria, 108
   idealism in U. S. during, 72-73
   money costs of, 15, 159
   no cause of British decline, 48
   Russian ideology in regard to, 74
   See also Europe; Italy; Peace settlements WRECK OF EUROPE, THE, Emil Lengyel, 13-22
 WUORINEN, JOHN H., The Finnish Treaty, 87-96
 Wuorinen, John H., editor, 87, 89, 90, 95
 Zhdanov, Andrei A., 8